In accordance with its statutory authorities, NIST maintains a research information center to support the research, publishing, and preservation needs required to fulfill the scientific and technical mission of NIST. NIST makes its RMF Introductory Courses (RMF Introductory Course, SP 800-53 Introductory Course, SP 800-53A Introductory Course, and SP 800-53B Introductory Course) available to interested parties as a public service. Pursuant to 17 USC 105, works authored by NIST employees are not subject to Copyright protection within the United States; foreign rights are reserved on behalf of the Secretary of Commerce. To the extent that NIST may hold copyright or other rights in countries other than the United States, you are hereby granted the non-exclusive irrevocable and unconditional right to print, publish, prepare derivative works, and distribute, in any medium, or authorize others to do so on your behalf, on a royalty-free basis throughout the world. Downloads are made available as a courtesy of NIST. Please provide appropriate attribution to NIST, the creator of the courses.

The RMF Introductory Courses (RMF Introductory Course, SP 800-53 Introductory Course, SP 800-53A Introductory Course, and SP 800-53B Introductory Course) are provided "AS IS." NIST makes NO WARRANTY of any kind, express or implied or statutory, including without limitation, the implied warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement or data accuracy.

Permission to use this material is contingent upon your acceptance of these terms.

I have reviewed, understand and accept the terms of the agreement above.*
